[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT. 1.

North and South Germany.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—A cable dispatch says Chancellor Delbruck, in an official report to the Prussian Government, announces his negotiations with the Government of South Germany, thus far, notably successful. He has concluded satisfactory preliminaries for the establishment of northern and southern German boundaries. A communication from the Prussian Government itself is wanted before commencing final negotiations.

Luxembourg Going to Prussia.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Servais, Minister of State, and President of Luxembourg, it is said, is negotiating a transfer of the Duchy to Prussia.

The French in China.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Dispatches from Bombay, dated the 26th, are just received and has the following advices and report that the Chinese have refused the ultimatum of the French and are preparing for war. The French are waiting orders from the Home Government before proceeding to extremities.

The British Cabinet on War Matters.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—At a cabinet meeting today the whole subject of the European situation came under discussion.

Gladstone is inclined to the sentiments of the Queen, that no Government exists in France which could be properly recognized by Great Britain at this time.

Advices from the British Minister at Paris, Lord Lyons, were urged in a contrary sense, but the course of the Government could not be determined by reference to any agent, no matter how well entitled to confidence and respect by the Government.

The final decision avowed that nothing could be done, as it was not expedient to recognize the only Government which at present could claim to be established in France. The result has caused great excitement throughout London, and new demonstrations of a serious character are looked for.

General Dispatches from London.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—There is no abatement in the military preparations of Russia. At the arsenals at Kiev 500 percussion muskets are daily turned into breech-loaders.

A dispatch from Tours says that there is considerable insubordination in the French army.

The Prussians have not yet arrived at Orleans. They seem to be desisting from their march westward, and to be concentrating their forces around Paris.

The reported movement of the French on Lyons is untrue.

The French say the Prussian losses since the war began, and particularly since the investment of Paris, have been so immense that the German authorities have taken care to conceal the fact from the papers.

Mezieres is very strong, but it is thought it cannot hold out.

Later advices from Paris announce that the construction of barricades is vigorously pushed forward under the supervision of Rochefort and Gustave Flourens.

The Garde Mobile has been armed with a new and dreadfully destructive engine. The invention has just been made, and is kept a profound secret. Greater results are expected from this weapon than from the famous mitrailleur.

The firemen are being enrolled at Tours.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The Prussians have occupied Rambouillet, seventeen miles south of Versailles. Public confidence is being restored in Paris.

Gladstone gives it as his opinion that there is no Government at present existing in France which can properly be recognized by Great Britain.

Prussia has remonstrated with England for violation of neutrality laws.

Thiers' Mission to Russia a Failure.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 30.—Thiers has returned to Vienna without having an interview with the Emperor. His convictions are that France has nothing to hope from Russia.

Dispatch from Rome

ROME, Oct. 1.—The plebiscite to be voted on Sunday will be thus stated: "Is the union of the Kingdom of Italy under the constitutional rule of Victor Emanuel and his successors desirable?"

Insubordination Among the French.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A telegram just received from Tours contains the following news: There is considerable insubordination in the French army. The officers are apparently unable to prevent disorder and violence among the raw and undisciplined soldiers. Examples have been made of them.

Miscellaneous Telegrams.

LYONS, via Tours, Sept. 30.—The political excitement has entirely subsided.

ROUEN, via Tours, Sept. 30.—Another balloon from Paris, landed near Nantes to-day, and a courier, with a multitude of letters and packages, has gone forward to Tours.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 30.—The Independence Belge says the new French Government has imposed a special tax of 4 centimes per number on all newspapers, domestic and foreign.

VIENNA, Sept. 30.—A naturalization treaty with the United States has been signed by the Austrian Government.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—It is vaguely asserted that some positions occupied by the Prussians have been recovered, possibly the recapture of Ville Juif is referred to.

The Prussians are continually coming nearer. They were engaged throwing up breastworks at Bayneux and Mendon. The location of the works will face Forts De Vanvers and D'Issy, south of Paris. The Prussians occupy Burden, 18 miles southwest of Versailles, and it is reported they have also reached Thirunal and Grioville, in the Departments of Seine and Loire.

CHERBOURG, Sept. 29.—The greatest part of the French fleet returned to this port to-day. A squadron has been left in the North and English Channel, sufficient to protect the French coast.

FALCHAVEN, Sept. 30, via Tours, Oct. 1.—One thousand five hundred Prussians now occupy this town. At Nemes the citizens have barricaded the streets, and will defend themselves.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—It is said the French repulsed the Prussians at Nantes.

Policy of Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 30.—The Journal of this city (official organ), emphatically denies the report of the Russian purchase of new ironclad steamers from the United States, and formally denies the stories of concentration of Russian troops on the Turkish frontier, and recall of Gen. Ignatieff, Russian Ambassador at Constantinople. The Journal adds that Russian policy is one of peace and justice.

Movements of German Troops.

ROUEN, Sept. 30, via Tours, Oct. 1.—An engagement occurred near here yesterday between a body of French sharpshooters and Prussian scouts. The latter were driven off. Beauvais has been occupied by Prussians.

Advices from Paris to the 26th say the Prussians demanded the surrender of Fort de Ivey, southeast of that city. The Prussians seem disinclined to attack the city. They still occupy the heights at a respectful distance from the French forts, when they see couriers or reconnoissances they open fire with shot and shell. They have constructed an entrenched camp at Versailles, and seem to have gone into winter quarters.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The Prussians are approaching Maintenon, in the department of Eure et Loire. Communication with that city, Chartres, and Eperon, was suddenly destroyed. It is thought the Prussians are preparing for a grand attack on Paris from the north, at the overlithers. Toulon is filled with Germans. Most of them participated in the late unsuccessful attempt to capture Charenton.

English Views on the War.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A special to the Herald says it has been determined by the Cabinet to make a strong and last appeal to Prussia to consent to peace, in consideration of the destruction of the fortresses of Alsace and Lorriane, without dismembering France.

To the rumored position which England has taken in apprehension of the warlike armament of Prussia, which occasions a declination in the power of France, already too much broken, there is great dread of reactionary tendency in Prussia among the German Liberals. They say that should King William proclaim himself Emperor of Germany, there will be a republic in Fatherland before five years. This is the universal conviction throughout Germany.

Beauregard in the French Service.

TOURS, Sept. 30.—It is reported here that Gen. Beauregard is in the French service and at present organizing troops in South France.

Discouragement in France.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A private letter from Tours of the 27th, says discouragement in official circles is great among the people. It seems the Generals decline to defend Orleans. Cremeux is packing up, and advises his Generals to do the same. He says that there are no means of resisting an attack on Tours.

The Prussians are expected at Tours in a few days, and the Government must move further west.

French Claim a Great Victory before Paris.

OSTEND, Sept. 30.—Intense excitement was caused here this morning by the arrival of a special messenger from Valenciennes, bringing news of a great battle fought on the Seine on the 27th, which resulted in the complete defeat of the Crown Prince, under the guns of Mont Valerien. The victory was followed by the evacuation of Versailles and Rambouillet, and the rupture of the German line of investment. The Crown Prince is retreating rapidly northward upon the army of the King at Meaux.

An unofficial telegram from Berlin, via Brussels, contradicts this news, but it is certain that communication between Paris Rouen, Amiens and Valenciennes is re-opened, and an official proclamation of the victory, signed by Gambetta, has been received in the latter city.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A correspondent at Bologne telegraphs that exciting news is received from Rouen of the defeat of the Crown Prince on the south west side of Paris, by the army of Generals Ducert and Mendeo, on the 28th. The French were reinforced on Monday by General Trochu and advanced on the German position at Motreail and Versailles. Early on Tuesday morning the battle began at Vincoy and Vatesoy. The Germans contesting the French advance with desperate energy, till they were assailed by a fresh column through Bois de Fausses, Reposes and and Vaucresson, when a number of regiments of Baden troops mutinied on the battle field and refused to go under fire. Nearly one hundred men of these troops were shot by order of the German commander, but the rest still held back, many throwing down their arms and dispersing through the forests. The Crown Prince was finally compelled to order a retreat upon Bougival, abandoning Versailles to the victorious French. The German columns which attempted the passage of the Seine at Bougival, were kept under a terrible fire from Mont Valerien, which converted the retreat into a rout, and they were driven beyond St. Germain. Night alone stopped the pursuit. The Germans lost 5,000 prisoners, among whom were many officers of the Crown Prince of Prussia, and fifty cannon and mitrailleurs. The road to Orleans and Tours is now reopened and cleared of the enemy.

TOURS, Sept. 30.—Later advices from Paris mention a series of successful engagements around the city. The ardor of the besieged has been much increased by these victories.

The new breech-loading cannon had been placed on the ramparts. There are no signs on the enemy in this direction.

Another "Escape" from Metz.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—A special from London says Gen. Bourbaki has escaped from Metz. He arrived in England yesterday, and immediately took the train to Hastings on a visit to the Empress. It is believed the General is the bearer of dispatches from Bazaine.

Balloon Services in France.

TOURS, Oct. 1.—Lissander, the aeronaut, has lately arrived here from Paris. He publishes in his journal an interesting narrative of his balloon trip, and the situation of affairs in Paris at the time he left. He left the city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. No Prussians were to be seen near Paris, and complete silence reigned about the city. There were no people to be seen on the roads leading to the city, and no boats of any kind on the river. On nearing Versailles, Prussians were observed in great numbers in camp. Lissander dropped among them great numbers of the proclamation of Government officers that had been printed in the German language for that especial purpose. The balloon was carried along to a point near Dreux, in the Department of Ure St. Loire, many miles west of the Prussian lines. The letters, twenty five thousand in number, were taken to the Post office of Meux, from whence they will be forwarded in directions wherever the lines of communication are not interrupted. Lissander says Paris is defended by more than 500,000 soldiers, who are behind the walls. These are all armed and disciplined. Firing at the forts has has been so accurate that the Prussians have been baffled in their attempts to erect batteries. Forts are supplied with electric lights, which are found to be admirably adapted for guarding against surprise. The supplies are sufficient for six months.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Statement of the Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1st.—The public debt statement just issued shows a decrease for September of $9,007,493 73. The decrease since March is $10,014,129 20.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—The remains found in Laurel Hill Cemetery yesterday, have been identified as those of Otto Rabbe, a saloon keeper. He was a native of Hamburg and about 32 years of age. He is supposed to have a wife in this city. The cause of his death has not yet been ascertained, but murder is suspected.

The Japan cleared for China with 200 passengers, $198,000 in treasure, and merchandise to the value of $77,000, including 3,109 barrels flour, 200 centals barley, 900 sacks potatoes, 150 boxes ripe fruits, and 60 firkins butter. She sailed this evening, having waited in vain for the Constitution, from Panama. The night is so foggy that the Constitution could not come in, if outside. It is announced that she will not sail until Tuesday in any event.

Twenty-six vessels entered port to-day, among which are the bark John Lobson, from Newcastle, England, with coal to Henry Lund; bark Aurora, from Hongkong, merchandise to Williams, Blanchard & Co.; schooner Hand J. Parker, from Honolulu, sugar to Williams, Blanchard & Co.; brig Nautilus, Tahiti, merchandise and passengers to order; ship Singapore, Yokohama, in ballast.

Henry Schwartz and Charles Funkenstein were driving in from the Cliff House this evening, when their horse ran away with them, throwing both out on the sidewalk, on the corner of Mason and Post streets, smashing the vehicle to atoms. Both were severely bruised, and Funkenstein was insensible for a long time. It is thought he is not fatally injured.

A perpetual injunction against the sale of stock of the Occidental Mining Company for the second assessment, has been granted. The matter of the first assessment is still in litigation, but will probably be decided against the company.

John McMahon has been arrested on a charge of arson—firing his residence, 502 Stockton street, last night. He owned the property and rented it out to beef slingers. He had it well insured.

AGRICULTURAL FAIRS.

COLUMBIA DISTRICT AGRICULTURAL FAIR, HELD AT DALLES LAST WEEK.

[From the Mountaineer of Saturday.]

The Columbia District Agricultural Fair commenced on Wednesday the 28th ultimo to continue for four days. Up to the time of our going to press, Friday noon, everything has passed off to the satisfaction of all concerned. We visited the grounds on Thursday and were extremely well pleased with the manner in which we found everything conducted. The attendance during Wednesday and Thursday was quite large. The amount of fine stock on exhibition is very large and is a credit to Wasco county. The exhibition in the pavillion is not very large, but the articles are all of a first class. We have concluded not to give a detailed account of what we saw this week, but will wait until next, when we will be able to give everything officially. So far the fair is quite a success in every particular and is far superior in every manner to those heretofore held in this county.

On Wednesday at 2 P. M. the first race was run—single dash of one mile—free for all stallions, for Society's purse of $20. T. M. Ward entered Comet; L. C. Thompson entered Baby; C. Force entered Jerry. F. A. Smith entered Prince of Wasco, and R. Brookhouse entered Mountain Buck. The race was won by Mountain Buck in 2.2. Special mile race same day for Society's purse of $25 between L. C. Thompson's horse Baby and R. Brookhouse's horse Mountain Buck was won by Baby. Mountain Buck came in first, but the race was given to Baby on account of foul riding on the part of the other horse. At 11 o'clock on Thursday there was a grand parade of all the cattle and horses on exhibition. This was a very interesting sight. The column was about three hundred yards in length, and contained some of the finest blooded stock to be found on the Pacific coast. At 1 o'clock P. M. we were treated to a trotting race, best two in three, between Hood's gray gelding and Snipe's gray gelding. The gray won the race in two straight heats. Time 3:42 and 3:59. This was a very pretty race. At 2 o'clock P. M. a running single dash of one mile, for three year olds was won by John Irvine's filly. At 3 o'clock P. M. the opening Address was read by H. A. Hogue for the President, Dr. W. B. Mitchell, who was present but not sufficiently well to stand the fatigue of delivering the Address himself. It was well received by the vast concourse of people in attendance, and contained many facts of vital interest to the people of Eastern Oregon.

THE CLARKE COUNTY, W. T., FAIR.

This fair presented many points of interest. The people of Vancouver and of Clarke county generally exerted themselves to make it successful. There was an excellent representation of the industries of the country. Gov. Salomon delivered the address before the Society. It was well conceived, and abounded in facts and illustrations of general interest. We would gladly publish the address, but our columns are at present too much crowded to permit us to do so. Following are the minutes of the annual meeting of the Society:

On the 30th of September, 1870, and pursuant to notice and adjournment, the members of the Clarke County Agricultural and Mechanical Society met at the pavilion on the Fair Grounds in Vancouver City, Clarke County, W. T., at 7 o'clock P. M., with A. S. Nicholson, President, and Julius Suiste, Secretary.

The meeting having been called to order by the President, the minutes of the last annual meeting, held on the 22d October, 1869, having been read were, after correction, duly approved.

The President announced that the order of business called for the election of the Board of Managers for the ensuing year, to commence on the 1st of January, 1871, and ending on the 31st of December, same year.

The following officers were thereupon elected:

President, Gay Hayden; 1st Vice President, Wm. Bratton, Sr.; 2d Vice President, T. J. Hosford, Acting Secretary, Julius Suiste; Corresponding Secretary, Hugh N. Sheben; Treasurer, M. A. Hathaway.

Executive Committee—Vancouver Precinct, S. D. Mason; Lincoln, H. M. Andrew; Preston, T. T. T. Lovelace, Fern Prairie, Wm. Goodwin Sr., Lancaster, John Bozarth; Pollock, John Timmons, Battle Ground, Wm. Palmer, Lacamas, Charles Bird; Washougal, C. C. Stiles, Selachte, M. Fargo, Manse, Ed. Slocum.

On motion it was

Resolved, 1st, That the thanks of the Society be and are hereby tendered to His Excellency, Gov. E. S. Salomon, for his kindness in delivering the annual address of the Society, on the 29th day of September, 1870.

2d. That the thanks of the Society be and they are hereby tendered to Gen. Saxton, and the U. S. officers at the military post of Fort Vancouver, for the use of the Reservation by the Society, during the Fair.

3d. That the thanks of the Society be and they are hereby tendered to the President and officers of the Clarke County Agricultural and Mechanical Society, for their energy in carrying out successfully the programme of the Fair of this year.

4th. That the thanks of the Society be and they are hereby tendered to the Portland papers for their kind notices of the Fair, in advance.

A motion was introduced, and carried, to the effect that henceforth the right of competing for premiums be and they are hereby extended to Washington Territory and to the State of Oregon.

It was also resolved that the papers of Washington Territory and the State of Oregon, be furnished with copies of the address of the Governor, and of the present proceedings, with prayers to publish them.

On motion the meeting adjourned until the next annual meeting unless called by the President.

MONDAY MORNING (CTOBER 180

A Punitory Act for Portland

An a t to pun h l tland for giving Republican m j r t s is t l p sed by the Legislature Th n arag rs f h party now operating at Salem hav de reed it Whispers to th s effect h v been in circulation for some time That Portland still persist in giving Rep bl c n ajorities is considered an outrage on the Democratic party Therefore that party i clam r 1 for revenge The Republ an offi als l ct l by the people are to be legislated out of office and Gov Grover is to be empowered to appoint Democrats in their stead Of course Gov Grover knows better than the people of Portland can know how the said people ought to be governed

Plainly then our city charter is to be amended or rather a new charter is to be created so as to enable the Governor to supersede the present City Recorder of the city by appointing a Police Judge in his place, and also to give the Governor power to appoint a Board of Police Commissioners who will substitute for the present police force a police of their own creating This is a nice job for the 'Democracy It is the penalty which Portland is doomed to suffer for giving Republican majorities For no one can be so silly as to suppose that if the Democrats had triumphed in recent elections in this city or thought they had any prospect of recovering the city government by the suffrages of the people they would propose a measure of this kind We have not yet seen the bill which proposes to make these and other radical changes but are surprised to hear that it still allows the people of Portland the privilege of electing a Mayor Why it is that the entire government of this rebellious city is not to be placed in the infallible hands of his Excellency, the Governor it is difficult to divine. For certainly it is a de ocrat measure to take away from the people their right of self government and to place the same in the hands of our Democratic Governor! That is Democracy indeed But it is very different from that kind of democracy which is defined to be government of the people, by the people and for the people

In order to perpetuate this new order of things as long as possible the Governor is to be empowered to make these appointments for the term of three years Before a Republican Governor is elected in 1874 the present Governor will renew the appointments, and it is hoped that by this method the rule of the Democratic officials can be continued here for six years in defiance of the wishes of the people Gov Grover of course will approve the act He and his party talk much and indignantly against usurpation of authority," 'centralization of power ' and all that sort of thing but he is not the man to decline such powers when they are offered him nor is his party the party to abstain from seizing such powers when it can Portland is hereafter to be an appanage of the Democratic gubernatorial crown Its offices are to be reckoned among the crown revenues," to belong to the present Democratic Governor and his successors in office in direct line forever,—or until some Republican shall with unlineal hand wrest the gubernatorial sceptre from them

A "rider" for this act to take away from the people of Portland their right of self government is supplied in the shape of a proposition to authorize the city to go in debt to the amount of four hundred thousand dollars to purchase or construct gas and water works A handsome little job is intended here It is supposed that a gas and water company now doing business here would not be averse to make a good thing by disposing of their property at something like the figure above named Indeed this feature of the proposed act becomes intelligible when it is stated that a Councilman of the city who is very zealous in behalf of the said company has been at the Capital for some time helping fix the thing up This feature of the act may however fail But we expect the main portion of it to go through Portland must be punished for electing Republicans to office and the Governor s creatures must have official places even though they have them among an unwilling people

The Fighting Before Paris

Dispatches say that the French have been claiming an important victory as the result of a movement in force on the German lines south of Paris a few days ago But the general tenor of the news forbids the belief that any important advantage had been gained The movement seems to have been simply a sortie against a portion of the German lines and to have failed to accomplish anything of consequence toward relieving Paris from the pressure of the hostile forces surrounding it In fact, without doubt, the Germans have re established their lines and may be expected to hold them unless France can receive such foreign aid as will cause the Germans to withdraw These sudden irruptions of the French forces upon the German lines may occasionally be attended with slight advantages, but the vast bodies of German troops surrounding the city are not to be driven off by such means The most the besieged can do is to drive back temporarily a division or two at one point or another Such partial success will, however make very little change in the general situation The German forces are strong enough to restore their lines at any point where they may be assailed and temporarily broken The only hope for France lies in foreign intervention and the chances for such intervention are dim and distant enough Inasmuch as the disciplined armies of France could not sustain and roll back the German onset it is madness to suppose that the French people in undisciplined masses, and unused to arms can do it however great their national heroism

Amis the rising statesman from Lane and the rival of Gov Whiteaker is not treated as he should be by his party Amis is trying to enact the anti-Chinese ideas of his party into a law and most of his brethren laugh at him The Albany Democrat heaps injury on insult by calling his cue bill a silly measure Why "silly It is neither more nor less silly than all the rest of the clack and clatter of the Democratic party about the Chinese The member from Lane is not a particle more silly than Governor Grover

A bill is introduced to remit the taxes due the State from Josephine county Of course Josephine is one of the counties that has about three times as much representation in the Legislature as she is entitled to The county is Democratic to the backbone her officials squander her revenues her excessive representation in the Legislature enables her in connection with other bed rock bankrupt decaying, Democratic counties to make laws for the State and at the same time to get rid of paying State taxes How lovely is all this

The Republican Record

[illegible] R p l [illegible] t [illegible] the sta [illegible] as gratifying to Republicans as it is distasteful to their opponents As the New York Herald says [illegible] pol y at l person of [illegible] with [illegible]

[illegible] This statement as a contemporary [illegible] put the Democracy into a [illegible] After all this labor and [illegible] in proclaiming Republican wastefulness and [illegible] and the most [illegible] ment charges of corruption to be suddenly confronted with the nation s balance sheet showing a diminution of the public debt of about 180 000 000 a reduction of taxation of [illegible] $80 000 000 [illegible] in addition of expenditures in every department and a cutting [illegible] the prompt dismissal of dishonest and inefficient agents is rather chilling It is not very wonderful that they turn to Vice President Colfax [illegible] presenting these facts to the people [illegible] officers [illegible] and the departments [illegible] in them They [illegible] down like a [illegible] on the Democratic slate and [illegible] [illegible] party [illegible] and wondering whether any of the people were weak enough to believe the nonsense they have been trying to crowd into them For all their deceits and inventions these write boldly across the page the words Expunged by a slate [illegible] of the truth The expose is the more severe because it [illegible] down so very sudden If any one doubts it let him read a Democratic paper and he will see that the editor shrinks from the facts as from a hot iron He has enough sensitiveness left to feel the ridiculousness of his position without the honesty to own it

It is said that Gen Beauregard has tendered his services to France Another officer of some prominence in the American rebellion was announced some days ago as having arrived in France for a similar purpose This officer is Gen Ripley who achieved the bad distinction of firing the first gun in the great rebellion Beauregard commanded in chief but Ripley had immediate charge of the batteries directed against Fort Sumter It is perhaps natural that these individuals should take sides with the French inasmuch as the French Government favored the South during our war

A whale seventy five feet long came ashore at Cape Foulweather a few days ago The Indians had a high and festive time over the blubber

E S McComas Chief Clerk of the House was assaulted on Thursday night at Salem by two robbers He struck one of them a severe blow with his cane and then succeeded in escaping

Fifteen young men attending the Wallamet University at Salem have rented a house hired a Chinaman to do their cooking and washing and find that they can live in good style for two dollars a week

The Statesman says that the following commissions to Notaries Public have been issued by Gov Grover Jeremiah Huntley residence at Ellensburg Curry county D H Murphy residence in Salem J H Sherin residence in Astoria Clatsop county

The receipts of the recent Fair in Linn county were as follows Gate fees $1 332 47 entries 296 17 licenses $159 2— total receipts $1 938 24, The receipts of the Fair of 1869 were $2 02 The falling off in the receipts as compared with those of last year are therefore considerable

Superintendent Thielson of the Oregon and California Railroad advertises in the Albany papers for 500 men and 100 teams to work on the road Here is a chance for all idle men and boys to get work The Superintendent still expects to complete one hundred miles of road by the end of December

The Register gives the population of Albany precinct at 2 694 The population of the county will not be so large as was anticipated at the outset of the census—probably not over 9 000 making Linn county the third in point of population instead of the second The population of Harrisburg is 350 all told So is too the famed city of the Forks falls behind slightly her population being 210

From the States There is a splendid chance offered to sheep raisers by the arrival of W C McGill s from Australia with a lot of Leicester sheep Mr McGillis left Australia with 56 head and reached here with 34 the remainder died on the voyage He offers 23 rams for sale all of them magnificent animals, and we hope the stock growers of this valley will not permit them all to be taken to Eastern Oregon

The Red Rock Democrat says that it is at last able to state positively that Carter s Ditch on Burnt river has been sold to the Chicago company and that they are taking the initiatory steps for active operations As soon as the necessary provisions are obtained a force of four or five hundred hands will be put at work upon it It is the design of the company to complete the ditch and have it all ready for use by next spring if not before

The total valuation of real estate in Baker county according to the Bedrock Democrat is $156 635 persons in the state $ 4 01 total $2 09 593 The county debt for which bonds have been issued is $1 5 9 all other county debts $8 000 Private libraries, including those of lawyers and clergymen 417 Average wages to farm hands by the month hired by the year and board $10 Average wages to a female domestic per week without board $1

A movement is on foot to unite Jackson and Joseph ne counties or rather to merge the latter in the former We can see no valid reason why this should not be done Josephine county is retrograding in population and wealth are less than they were ten years ago It is the only county in the State or at all events west of the mountains which does not show progress A petition is also in circulation among the people of Linn praying for a division of that county The proposed division is unnecessary and probably will not be consummated

Last Sunday at Jefferson says the Albany Register a young lady of that village performed the feat of walking from shore to shore of the Santiam river on the narrow planks laid on the top of the piers and false work of the new bridge for the benefit of the workmen Nothing daunted by the rushing seething waters some forty feet beneath her feet and the fact that several gentlemen who had tried the experiment but were compelled to sit down being overcome by dizziness and count it back to the starting point she bravely walked the plank, without the least apparent trepidation and climbed down the long ladder on the Albany side of the river

CITY.

[illegible] LAW SUIT.—An injunction, issued out [of] the Circuit Court for Multnomah county was [served] on Saturday last upon Messrs W. S. [illegible] and E. B. Thompson, J. C. Ainsworth, J. W. [illegible] and S. G. Reed, restraining them from selling [illegible] blocks of city property valued at $100,- [illegible] of which the complainant, the Oregon Central [Railroad] Company (West Side), charges were [obtained] fraudulently by them. The same Company [bring]s suit against these persons in addition [to] the above for the return of 77,000 in first [mortgage] bonds, and for $100,000 damages for [illegible] of their contract to build the West Side [road], charging that the contract was [illegible] unlawfully and fraudulently. One of the [illegible] in the West Side company, defendant in [illegible], is charged with malfeasance and [illegible] in his office, and the complaint alleges [that it] was through his action that defendants [obtained] the land and bonds in question. This is [an] extensive law suit, and will require the [illegible] in the land.

[illegible].—An old man living alone in a [cabin] just south of the Caruthers claim, was missed [by the] laborers at Messrs. Goodnough & Clark's [illegible] on the Macadamized road, for two or [three] days, and yesterday his cabin was visited by [illegible], when he was found dead in bed. A jury [was summon]ed by Justice A. M. Snyder, and an [inquest] was held yesterday. Dr. Ellis was called [and made] a post mortem examination, which re[vealed] the fact that he had died from natural [causes]—a victim to consumption. The supposition [is that] he had been dead at least two or three [days], as the last that was seen of him was on [illegible]. He leaves no relatives or friends [that] we could learn of. The sum of $24 10 [was] found on the premises. The cabin was built [on the] land claim of Mr. Terwilliger, and the de[ceased] was formerly an employe on the west side [road].

[illegible] INJURED.—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Du[illegible] [were] very seriously injured on Thursday last, [while] going home from this city in their wagon, [by] being thrown backwards over the end gate, [from the] chairs in which they were seated. The oc[currence] was caused by the team taking sudden [fright at a] flying pheasant. Their son accom[panied them] and was sitting in the forward part [illegible] driving. Attendance of a physi[cian was had] as speedily as possible, and we [learn] that the aged and worthy couple [are recovering] from their injuries.

[illegible].—The barkentine Orient ar[rived] [illegible] from San Francisco laden with [iron for] the Oregon and California Railroad [illegible].

[illegible], of Eugene City, brought to Oregon [illegible] five head of fine wool sheep [illegible] from England.

[illegible] order business at the Portland [illegible] to $63,902 18 for the three [months ending] September 30, 1870.

[illegible] Jane A. Falkinburg—Cath[illegible] completed her cargo for [illegible] will be towed to Astoria to-day ready [illegible].

[illegible] won a beautiful double barrel [illegible] raffle on Saturday. He refuses [illegible] barrel in silver for his prize.

[illegible] Brooks, formerly Postal Agent for [illegible] in the city. He came over [illegible].

[illegible] at the Labor Exchange, October [illegible] blacksmiths, one chambermaid, [illegible] porter—six in all.

[illegible] gentlemen, passing out into the [illegible] wharf in a small boat on Sat[urday] [illegible] serious injury from a box of [illegible] old bottles which was emptied [illegible] above them.

[illegible] closed on Saturday evening [illegible] "Fernande" and the burlesque [illegible] "Lady of Lyons."

[illegible] runaway teams have been re[illegible] many days past, but no great [damage] [illegible] in any case.

[illegible] lots 7 and 8, in block 18, Caruth[ers] [illegible] sold at auction by Mr. Rich[ardson] [illegible] of $980.

[illegible], proprietor of the Brooklyn Hotel.

[illegible] of the county court for Mult[nomah] [illegible] will meet this morning at 9 o'clock. [illegible] will meet on Wednesday morn[ing].

[illegible] that Mr. H. C. Leonard intends [illegible] building in place of that destroy[ed by] [illegible] fire at the corner of First and A [illegible].

[illegible] Snyder, who was so badly injured by a [illegible] scaffold in this city, two [years ago], to be an invalid ever since, has [illegible] store on First street, at which, [illegible] calls it a "one-horse" store, all [illegible] can be well supplied. See ad[vertisement].

[illegible] OF TIME.—On Saturday we met a [illegible] came down on the morning [illegible] business and started [illegible] train. Formerly one day [illegible] coming to Portland, and arriv[ing] [illegible], another day was con[sumed] [illegible] city, then the third day was occupi[ed] [illegible] trip. This illustrates the advan[tage of] having a railroad. Besides a saving of [illegible] the cash expenses of the trip are [illegible] than one half.

[illegible].—We are informed that while [illegible] at McMinnville, on Saturday last, [illegible] named Hamilton and Matter[illegible] the lock game successfully to the [illegible] stranger, when the citizens gath[ered] [illegible] and took the pair in custody and [illegible] under guard where they were when [illegible]. The excitement over the af[fair is] described as having been pretty steep.

[illegible].—Mr. Alvinza Hayward, one of the [illegible] capitalists of California, owner of the [illegible] Esmeralda goldmine, and the coal [mines at] Bellingham Bay, W. T., will return to [illegible], we learn, from a trip to Idaho. [illegible] Puget Sound he will return to San [Francisco].

[illegible].—Mr. Charles Eastebrook of [illegible] summoned to attend court in Tilla[mook] [illegible], on the 29th ult., to testify next day [illegible] brought against a person by the name of [illegible]. The ride to Tillamook within the time [illegible] morning, but he would accomplish it [illegible].

[illegible].—A brace of sharps "went [through] a Chinaman for all he had on Saturday, [illegible] from Vancouver, on board the One [illegible] [Of]ficial reported his fate, and had a "head [illegible]" after which a warrant for the arrest [illegible] was sworn out. When arrested [illegible] will be tried.

[illegible] CURIOSITIES.—Mr. A. J. Stafford, [illegible] valuable collection of curiosities [illegible] natural growth of Oregon vine maple, [illegible] the same at Philharmonic Hall to [illegible] evening. Among them is a chair, natural [illegible] stand, candle stick, etc. See advertise[ment].

[illegible] PHYSICIAN.—Dr. A. D. Ellis has been [appointed] by Gov. Grover Visiting Physician to [the] Asylum for the Insane. Dr. Ellis in[forms us] that the law does not require him to visit [the Asylum] more than twelve times a year, but [he] proposes to visit it as often as ten times a [illegible]. This is very kind in him to do [illegible] for the unfortunate patients than is [required] by law, without additional charges.

[illegible].—The ship Alpha is now loading at [illegible], China and Liverpool docks in [illegible] by Messrs. Corbett & Macleay. Her [cargo] will consist of grain, for Falmouth, or or[ders].

[illegible] FUNERAL.—The Emmet Guard, of [which] Joseph Petty was a member, will turn out [to] the funeral to-day.

[illegible].—Improvements have been start[ed on] [illegible] Sixth street, and men and teams were [illegible] the intersection of Market street in [illegible] Saturday.

[illegible].—The Stag-hound, with a cargo of salt [illegible] Island, for McCraken, Merrill & [Co.] [illegible] Orient, with 500 tons railroad mate[rial] [illegible] Walter Moffett's fine bark Edward [illegible] Patterson, from San Francisco, are [illegible] in this port. The latter vessel [illegible] reached her wharf, but will be up to[-day].

[illegible].—The North Pacific Trans[portation] Company's sidewheel steamship Califor[nia] [illegible] the Oregon packets Hattie C. Besse, [illegible] Yankee, all from Portland, [illegible] on Saturday last.

THE FINICE CARUTHERS ESTATE.

THE HUSBAND AND FATHER TO ME, A PAUPER IN THE STREETS OF ST. LOUIS—THE SEARCH AND DISCOVERY—SALE OF HIS ESTATE—THE DEED ON FILE FOR RECORD—THE END OF AN EXPENSIVE LITIGATION—THE OLD MAN COMING TO OREGON.

The absorbing topic of both thought and conversation in this city, for the past two days, has been the discovery of the Father of Finice Caruthers, an abject pauper in the streets of St Louis, Missouri. The story presents itself in the most interesting manner to the minds of those who were here previous to the death of Finice Caruthers—and they naturally revert to him, a hard working bachelor of forty years, who, as fast as he made money, invested it in real property, which is to-day worth at least half a million dollars. Finice Caruthers and mother came to Oregon in 1848, prior to the passage of that act of Congress known here as "The Donation Law," and under its provisions they took up 640 acres of land near this city—what is now termed "Caruthers' Addition to the City of Portland" being a portion of the tract. The mother and son lived together on this land, and held it under the Donation Law, by building their house on the line of their respective claims, thus giving each a residence on their own. In the year 1858 Mrs. Caruthers, (as she was supposed to be,) died. Upon her death Finice became heir to her property. In September, 1860, Finice died—leaving no heir that was known to the people of Oregon. The matter was brought into the Probate Courts, and in accordance with law General Stephen Coffin was appointed to administer upon the estate. It was the common belief that Finice was an illegitimate son of his mother, and with this view, when he died the State of Oregon attempted to seize his estate under the law of escheat, as being a person who could have no heirs. The administrator, however, spent much time and money searching for heirs, but finally abandoned the search. Gen. Coffin was released upon application from further administration about the year 1863, and Mr. C. S. Silvers, a Front street merchant, was appointed in his place, and these papers were continued until about two years since. In the meantime, Mr. Dolph Hannah, obtained track of legitimate heirs on the side of the mother, and with great perseverance and energy he worked the matter up, finding some forty or more persons entitled to interests in the estate. He formed a co-partnership with certain other gentlemen in this city, and the interests so found were purchased. Within two years from this date, in all probability Mr Hannah and his associates would have perfected their titles to the whole remaining estate—only for the astonishing and unexpected course which the entire proceeding has taken during the past thirty days. The pursuit of the estate by the State of Oregon, under the law of escheat, was abandoned two years ago, by the passage of a joint resolution of the legislative assembly, ordering that all proceedings at law for such purpose be dismissed. The half of the history of these transactions could not be told in a dozen newspaper articles. All has been done that could be done, by enterprising men who have traveled for weeks together, when it was perilous to do so, down in the Southern States, when the chivalry of the "Confederacy" were in their glory. But this business was done with that quiet kind of Yankee confidence, and self assurance which is the surest guarantee of success. Counsel of the highest order, skilled in the arts and science of law, have devoted long hours in toil searching for precedents or a parallel to this case. The supremest efforts have been put forth in the Courts—but all to no purpose. Notwithstanding all these years of searching; all the money expended on both sides; all the interests purchased from relatives of the mother of Finice found "down south," all the sleepless, untiring effort of those interested—it seems, at last, that it was left to an humble resident of Oregon City, a former acquaintance of the father of Finice Caruthers, to finally discover his whereabouts, and bring to its final termination an extensive litigation. This new chapter, if compromises are not made, will lead the Courts through the details of broken marriage vows, and a sad separation, (for Miss Caruthers was married, and Finice was her legitimate child,) with all the incidents of pioneer trapper life among Indian tribes, and finally to the pauper's obscurity in the great city of St. Louis. The last chapter may be briefly stated thus: Joseph Thomas and Elizabeth Caruthers were married in the State of Tennessee, in the year 1816. They lived together as man and wife for five years; and to them was born, in the year 1818, Finice Thomas. In 1821, on account of domestic troubles, Joseph and Elizabeth Thomas parted, Mrs. Thomas taking Finice, then but three years of age. To get away from the source of his unhappiness, Joseph started for the Indian country, then in what is now the State of Arkansas, and lived among the Indians for many years as a fur trapper in the employ of fur traders, trading and living with the Delawares, Cherokees and Choctaws. Mrs. Victor's River of the West will give a fair idea of the life of Mr. Thomas for nearly fifty years, which was of course very similar to the life led by the hero of her story, Joe Meek. He was known far and wide among the Indians, trappers and frontiersmen as "Wrestling Joe," being invincible in that backwoods accomplishment. It is claimed that he and his wife did meet and live together for a short time after their first separation, but that she saw him the last time about 1847, just before coming to Oregon. In Oregon City there were two men, Messrs. James M. Moore and G. C. Davidson, who knew of the marriage and identity of Joseph and Elizabeth, knew them living together as man and wife, knew of the boy Finice, and knew of the separation, and knew Thomas among the Indians. About two years ago Mr. Moore concluded he would make an attempt to ascertain the existence or death of his old acquaintance, Thomas, and for that purpose wrote letters innumerable, and after a long time, about three months ago, received a letter from another old trapper away down on the border, giving an account of "wrestling Joe," (the name of Thomas seemed not to attach to him among those frontiermen). This letter traced him to St. Louis, and left him, sick and in poverty, in a hospital, about six months ago. On this letter Moore and Davidson went to St. Louis, and were soon followed by Hon. W. C. Johnson; and then commenced the work of finding poor old "wrestling Joe." He had left the hospital and no one could give any account of him, and the directory gave no address of the pauper. But these three Oregonians were not to be foiled, if "wrestling Joe" was still alive, even in the wilderness of a great city. Davidson started out among the wharf rats, beggars and unfortunates of the city. Moore directed his investigations among the Choteaus, Demers, and other great fur houses, old traders and trappers, while Mr. Johnson worked with the policemen, and, after ten days' hunt, "Wrestling Joe" was found, a poor street beggar, clad in rags, ninety one years of age, and a mere shadow. The old man retains his mental faculties, having a vivid recollection of the early troubles of his married life, his little boy, and the separation; and after many hours' conversation, in which he and Moore and Davidson recounted early exploits and incidents, identifying himself as the "Wrestling Joe" Thomas they knew a half century ago, Mr. Johnson broke the news of the death of his wife and son, and the fact of his being heir to a vast fortune, the estate of his son. The old man was naturally overwhelmed with such revelations. After explaining to him the nature of his inheritance, its value, and the necessity of bringing lawsuits to recover it, they gave him his choice to recover the property for himself or sell his interest on such terms as would make him comfortable the balance of his days. The old man wanted no trouble or lawsuits, but peace and comfort on the verge of the grave, and the heavenly vision of being immediately relieved from beggary induced him to sell his interest, which he did, and signed a deed, which was left for record at the Court House on Saturday last. Moore and Davidson are still in St. Louis, and will bring the old man to Oregon when they return. The discovery of the father of Finice will not affect any of the titles made by him during his life-time, or by his administrator since his death, and it will probably tend to bringing to a satisfactory conclusion a long chain of unsettled title to the remaining portion of the estate.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT

SALEM, Saturday, Oct. 1, 1870.

THE PATTERSON-O'MEARA AFFAIR.

In my last letter I made mention of a personal rencontre between Messrs. Patterson and O'Meara, in which I gave the account which came to me. I now mention it again because, from all accounts I did not then have exactly the correct account. Taking all the stories, I find the affair to have occurred about as follows: Mr. Patterson stood in the door-way of a drug store on Commercial street, and was not seen by O'Meara, (so the latter affirms), who came walking down the street. Patterson, without saying anything, struck O'Meara as he passed by on the side and back of the head (Mr. O'Meara says) with a slung-shot or other hard substance in his hand. Mr. O'Meara was knocked down. Mr. Patterson then followed up the blow by an attempt to take away O'Meara's cane and at the same time trying to strike him in the face. O'Meara defended, and tried to get his pistol from his pocket. Just as he was about to succeed Patterson was taken off by the bystanders. O'Meara drew his pistol, but Mr. Griswold, who was standing near, instantly snatched it from his hand. Patterson, who had retreated or had been pushed back a few steps, drew his pistol, but was just then seized by a police officer. Patterson was taken before the Recorder, but nobody appearing as complainant, he was discharged. Mr. O'Meara avers that he did not see Patterson till after the blow was given, and was not suspecting any intention of the latter to attack him, as he had met him a number of times during the day. With the intention of doing exact justice to the parties, I give this as the true account as near as I can sift the matter.

NIBBLES AT THE LAND GRANT.

One of the Democratic friends of the Dalles-Sandy wagon road scheme denominates the appropriation in the bill now pending as a mere nibble at the 500,000 acre grant. The query occurs to me, if $79,000 is a nibble what will a bite amount to? Aside from the bad precedent of making a present breach upon that donation, if the seventy-nine thousand-dollar nibble were the only one, the matter would not be so very serious. A number of Senators and Representatives who are not really opposed to the diversion of the lands to the school fund, have been heard to declare that if the lands are to be used for internal improvement jobs they are going after their share of it. Already, under the impression that the land is to be parceled out, members have introduced bills appropriating amounts, which in the aggregate strike me as being something more than a "mere nibble." The Dalles Sandy scheme calls for $79,000. The Jackson Grant Baker road will probably call for $100,000 or more. The Wallamet Falls lock bill calls for $125,000. Total, $304,000. If these bills go through, the inroad, large as it is, will be a "mere nibble" compared with the "bites" that will soon follow. Though there seems now to have been a check put upon these measures, it may be set down as certain that the people of Oregon will lose the magnificent grant to the school fund through the hands of the Democracy if that party be kept in power two years longer. If the schemes to job out the lands are not successful this session the fact may be set down to the credit of the Republican minority in the Senate, who, with a single exception, have steadfastly voted against the measures in every form. Col. Cornelius stands like a rock against every measure, direct or indirect, looking to the loss of the 500,000 acres to the school fund, and the other Republican members, except Mr. Thompson, have firmly and watchfully supported him. In addition to the schemes above mentioned a petition has been presented from Eastern Oregon praying that an appropriation may be made out of the fund arising from public land sales to purchase a couple of toll roads in Eastern Oregon and to make them free roads.

THE STATE PRINTER HAS MORE GRIEF.

The State Printer is realizing that calamities never come singly. The other day the Senate lopped off a considerable item of printing. To-day the Senate adopted a resolution directing an inquiry as to whether the State printing is being done according to law. There were Democrats who did not hesitate to say that they had misgivings that the State Printer was overdoing the "fat" business, and others who did not profess to know about such matters, but were willing to institute the inquiry. The matter is not particularly significant except as showing that the Herald has waked up a "red-hot" nest of enmity in its own party, and that hereafter that "organ" must row against the stream.

ECONOMY FROM A DEMOCRATIC STAND POINT.

The way in which the Democracy here carry out their professions of economy, is not altogether in accordance with the dictionary definition of the word; but their dictionaries are made by merely mortal men, and are subject to that fallibility which pertains to all things not divine. Some time ago I mentioned the matter of extra clerks, numerous and very comfortable committee rooms, postage, etc. These were mere starts toward a strictly economical administration. As the Legislative Department becomes daily more Democratic, these ideas of economy are daily becoming more distinctly defined. Within the last day or two a bill has been introduced to double the salary of the private secretary of the Governor, another to create the office of assistant Treasurer of the State, with a compensation of magnificent proportions—a better thing to have than any other office in the State organization. Another bill is pending and will pass, appropriating $543 57 to pay a claim set up by B. F. Bonham—a claim which has been rejected as often as presented to the Legislature for the last ten years. These instances only indicate which way the wind blows, and are by no means the measure of Democratic economy to which attention might be called.

VACANCIES ON COMMITTEES FILLED.

To-day the President remarked that he found a considerable proportion of the Senate committees, by the changes which had taken place in the membership of the Senate, had been filled by Democrats, and as he was not disposed to make the thing altogether unanimous, he would fill the vacancies in joint committees with the names of members of the other party. Accordingly Mr. Powell was appointed on the joint committee on insane asylum, in place of Witham. The appointments in place of Mr. Watts have not yet been made. As the committees now stand there are seven standing committees wholly Democratic, and eleven upon which one Republican may be found. The unanimously Democratic committees are the Judiciary, Commerce, Engrossed Bills, Roads and Highways, Public Lands, Printing and Railroads.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

A bill is pending in the Senate to provide for the erection of a State Capitol building, and the matter of other public buildings has been more or less talked of, since the beginning of the session. There is no well defined sentiment yet evoked in regard to these matters. To-day the Senate provided for a committee on public buildings, and Messrs. Trevitt, Patterson and Powell were appointed. I have no means of knowing how those gentlemen stand in regard to building, but the friends of the measures fear that the committee will be unfavorable.

The Summer is past and Autumn is here,
The finest season throughout the whole year,
But the days grow cool, and all must prepare
For warmer Clothing in Winter to wear.
Well, KOHN & FISHEL, of Clothing renown,
Have the best supply ever brought to town.
They have all sorts of coats and pants that will match,
That will last a whole year and not need a patch,
There are socks, vests and shirts and a thousand things more
Which they offer you cheaper than ever before,
You all need the clothes and they need the tin,
Then get a new suit and let Winter go in.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—The Bill of Beck & Waldman passed the Senate and will go through every house, that they have the best stock of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods which will be sold cheaper than that of any other house. Call and judge for yourself.

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Sixth Biennial Session

SENATE—Morning Session.

SALEM, Saturday, Oct. 1st.

The Senate convened at 10 A. M., the President, Mr. Fay in the Chair.

During the reading of the Journal yesterday several Senators having gone out, Mr. Brown, of Baker, moved a call of the Senate, which was ordered, and the Sergeant at Arms was instructed to bring in the absentees, the Senators having rushed out to hear Fulton of the House on a question of privilege.

Mr. Stout asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Powell, till Monday afternoon.

Mr. [illegible] presented a petition of the citizens of Josephine county, praying that the county organization be abolished and that the territory be added to Jackson county.

Mr. Hendershott presented the petition of citizens of Union county, praying that an appropriation be made out of the proceeds of the sale of [illegible] land to purchase certain toll roads in Eastern Oregon, and to make them free roads.

Mr. Mosher from the Committee on Roads and Highways, to whom was referred S. B. 11, to regulate the laying out of roads, etc., reported the same back with their recommendation.

RESOLUTIONS AND MOTIONS.

Mr. Trevitt, in accordance with previous notice, moved to amend the rules by adding an additional standing committee on public buildings. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Cornelius offered S. J. R. 15 to instruct the committee on Printing to see that all incidental printing be done according to law.

Mr. Mosher opposed the resolution because it is the business of that committee to do what the resolution requires without instructions.

Mr. Trevitt favored it because it is the right of the Senate to instruct all committees.

Mr. Cornelius believed that the printing had not been done according to law, and he thought it time if the Senate proposed to enforce economy that this matter be attended to.

Mr. Cochran opposed the resolution, though he had thought the printing of bills had not been done exactly right. It was the business of the committee to look after such matters. He thought there might have been a little cheating, but he was willing to rely on the committee without instructions.

Mr. Trevitt expressed a belief that the printing had not been done according to law.

Mr. Hendershott inquired if the mover of the resolution intended it to be understood that the printing had not hitherto been done according to law, and that hereafter it shall be done according to law.

Mr. Cornelius—It is the intention of the mover to have the committee on printing to see that the printing be done according to law.

Mr. Cochran said that four years ago he believed the printing was not being done according to law, that he now, as a member of the House, had attempted to have the matter corrected, but being in a minority, he had been unsuccessful. Now when matters are reversed and the office of State Printer had passed into the hands of the Democrats, the gentleman from Washington comes here to instruct the minority to force upon the majority that economy which he was not willing to practice four years ago.

Mr. Trevitt—I would like to ask the gentleman from Lane county a question. Which side of the House is the State Printer on?

Mr. Cochran—Well, I consider on the Democratic side.

Mr. Stout favored the resolution because it was a right the Senate had to instruct its committees, and it was a common thing to do. He did not think it any disrespect to the committee. The gentleman from Lane says that four years ago he had tried to do just what the resolution contemplated. He would like to ask that gentleman if he was not now willing to do what he had tried to do four years ago.

Mr. Cochran said he put his opposition on the ground that the committee would attend to its duties without instruction.

Mr. Strahan opposed the resolution because the law prescribes the duties of the State Printer—the manner of doing his work. He moved to amend the resolution so as to make it a Senate resolution to instruct the Committee on Printing to inquire and report if the printing is being done according to law.

Mr. Cornelius accepted the amendment and the resolution was then adopted.

Mr. Hoult offered S. J. R. 14, that the petition from the citizens of Josephine county be referred to the joint delegation of both Houses from Jackson and Josephine counties. Adopted.

The President announced the appointment of Mr. Strahan on all committees in place of Mr. Witham.

Mr. Trevitt moved that the amended committee lists be printed with the amended rules. Carried.

The President said that he found that nearly all the vacancies on the Senate committee had been filled by Democrats, he would fill the vacancies on joint committees with gentlemen of the other party. He then appointed Mr. Powell on the Joint Committee on Insane Asylum.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Baldwin—S. B. 35, to create the office of Assistant Treasurer.

By Mr. Fay—S. B. [illegible], to prevent and punish vagrancy. Both bills were ordered printed.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

The following bills were read a second time: S. B. 21, to provide for the construction of a wagon road through Jackson, Grant and Baker counties, referred to Committee of the Whole. S. B. 36, to amend the general law in relation to the salary of the Governor's Private Secretary; referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. S. B. 37, to provide for religious and educational associations; referred to the Committee on Corporations.

BUSINESS FROM THE HOUSE.

Mr. Stout moved to take from the table S. B. 25, to provide for private incorporations.

Mr. Stout moved to provide for private incorporations, carried.

Mr. Stout moved to indefinitely postpone the bill, which prevailed.

BUSINESS FROM THE HOUSE.

H. J. R. 16, to provide for a joint committee to examine the books and papers of the State Penitentiary, was received by message.

The Senate concurred in the resolution.

Mr. Stout moved that when the Senate adjourn it adjourn till 2 P. M. Monday.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Stout moved to go into Committee of the Whole on S. B. 21; lost.

The Senate adjourned till 2 P. M. Monday.

HOUSE—Morning Session.

SALEM, Oct. 1, 1870.

The House was called to order at 10 A. M. Messrs. Carson, Holman and Olney were absent.

Prayer was omitted.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

MR. FULTON AGGRIEVED AGAIN.

Mr. Fulton arose to a question of privilege. He read an article from an advertising sheet called the Visitor, published in this city by J. H. Brown. The article criticises the language and gesticulation of Mr. Fulton while speaking to a question of privilege relative to an article in the Mountaineer criticising language on the resolution to invite Gen. Sherman to visit the State capital, under the caption of "Excited." The article indulges in some humorous remarks about Mr. Fulton, comparing his voice to that of a pig with its head under a fence, and describing his body, while speaking, as resembling the curve of an Indian bow. The speaker said the Republican newspapers seemed to be so fond of military men that they were unwilling to rest until the nation shall be placed under the dominion of a military tyrant. He attacked Mr. Brown as an ex gravedigger and ex-census taker, who, having lost his hold of the public teat, is now squealing like a pig for more pap. The attack made by the paper reminded him of an anecdote of two boys who were trying to catch a ground hog. One of them put his hand into the hole, and the other, seeing him make a face, asked him if he had caught the ground hog; "No," he replied; "but it's got me!"

The remarks of Mr. Fulton created great merriment in the House.

Mr. Lockhart moved the adoption of the article read from the Visitor, but was ruled out of order.

Mr. Amis objected to consuming so much time with such nonsense.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

The following bills were introduced, read the first time, and ordered printed:

By Mr. Whiteaker—An act to amend section 5 of chapter 53 of the General Laws, relating to poll tax. Also, an act for the relief of Lane county. [The bill remits the interest on the $6 469 97 of tax so long in litigation between the county and State. The interest is $2,450 18.]

By Mr. Helm—An act to amend the General Laws relating to ferries.

By Mr. Hare—An act to amend chapter 5 of the General Laws, relating to common schools. [Authorizes a tax of five mills on the dollar at the same time that other taxes are collected.]

By Mr. McLane—An act to amend section 22 of chapter 47, in reference to public lands.

By Mr. Dunbar—An act to change the mode of voting from viva voce to the ballot.

By Mr. Whatley—An act to amend sections 500 and 501 of the General Laws.

By Mr. Lockhart—An act to create the office of Surveyor of Lumber for Coos county; also, an act for the relief of Coos county; also, an act to declare certain bills not collectable.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

House Bill No. 25, an act for the relief of Artemus Dodge, of Lane county, by Mr. Dorris; ordered engrossed.

House Bill No. —, an act to amend the mechanics' lien law, ordered engrossed.

House Bill No. 24, an act to repeal section 246 of title 1 of chapter 41 of the code of civil procedure, by Mr. Helm, ordered engrossed.

House Bill No. [illegible], an act to amend an act to incorporate Dalles City, ordered engrossed.

House Bill No. 37, an act to amend section 1, of article 7, of the act to regulate the fire department of the city of Portland, ordered engrossed.

House Bill No. 12, an act to change subdivision 4 of section [illegible], of chapter 1, of the civil code; the bill was read a third time and passed.

House Bill No. 7, an act to amend section 31, of chapter 18, of the General Laws, repealing the 50 per cent extra fees allowed to the officers of the counties east of the mountains. The bill was passed.

[illegible] OF JOSEPHINE COUNTY.

A message from the Senate announced the reference of a petition from the citizens of Josephine county, asking abolition of their county, to the delegations from Josephine and Jackson counties in the two Houses. The House concurred in the resolution.

[illegible]

H. B. [illegible], an Act to amend an Act relating to the assessment and collection of taxes approved [illegible] 24, 1868. Mr. Hare explained that the bill is designed to save the county the expense of making a [illegible] copy of the assessment [illegible] by the Secretary of State. The rolls cost from [illegible] to [illegible] each, while an abstract would furnish all the necessary information for the Secretary of State.

The bill was passed.

At 12 M. the House adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

The House met at 2 o'clock P. M., the Speaker in the Chair.

Mr. Applegate—I move to adjourn until Monday at 2 o'clock P. M.

Mr. Amis—I move to amend so as to adjourn until Monday at 10 o'clock.

The Speaker—The Chair hears no second to the motion to amend. It is out of order, anyhow, as a simple adjournment under the rules would be until 10 o'clock Monday.

Mr. Amis—I insist that my motion is in order.

The Speaker—The question has been decided to be out of order.

The motion was then put, and a strong response made on each side of the question.

The Speaker—The ayes have it. The House stands adjourned until Monday 2 o'clock P. M.

Trust what Time has Sanctioned.

The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the divinity, may in some cases, be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses extending through a series of years, and all to the same purport is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many ailments is based. During the twenty years that it has been before the world innumerable preparations intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets, and come down like extinguished sticks. Meanwhile the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady—always upward and onward like the eagle's flight. Its introduction produced a revolution in therapeutics, and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that cannot go backwards. To-day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in christendom, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation, domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, billious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, and as a preventive of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious country dealers who endeavor to foist their local abortions on the public in its stead, how futile their small attempts to cajole the community must necessarily be. Where the game fish have failed there is no chance for the "suckers."

DR. PIERCE'S
ALT. EXT.
OR GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

This is the most thorough blood purifier yet discovered, and Cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Eruption. Pimples and Blotches on the face, and scaly or rough skin, which are such annoying blemishes to many young persons, yield to the use of a few bottles of this wonderful medicine. From one to eight bottles cure Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scald Head, Ring Worms, Boils, Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, Scrofula Sores, Ulcers and "Canker" in the Mouth and Stomach. It is a pure medicinal extract of native roots and plants, combining in harmony Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick. It is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid, sleepless, have nervous apprehensions or fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of weakness, will find convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated and despondent, have frequent Headaches, mouth tastes badly in the morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal as it effects a perfect cure, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Habitual Constipation of the Bowels it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. In Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, it has produced many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Sold by druggists at $1 00 per bottle. Prepared at the Chemical Laboratory of

SELTZER
APERIENT.

The Easiest Way is the Best.—To send fire and sword through the bowels of the land, would be scarcely more cruel than it is to tear and wreck the delicate and sensitive membranes and tissues of the discharging organs, with a convulsing purgative. No medicinal preparation at present known, so completely, permanently, and painlessly relieves constipation as TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT, and as it simultaneously invigorates the digestion, regulates the action of the liver, and refreshes the debilitated system, it is justly esteemed both by medical men and the public at large, as an indispensable specific in dyspepsia, bilious attacks, sick headache, physical prostration, and all complaints affecting the secretive, assimilating and discharging organs.

From More to More

Toward the north the needle points
With [illegible] slight variation
Now east, now west, [illegible]
But [illegible] a strange mutation

Toward the Truth opinions lean
Though differing from each other
A brighter light makes one man glad
And brighter still another

We read with wonder and despise
The thoughts of ancient races;
Some future race perchance may trace
Folly writ on all our faces

Of knowledge and its mighty store
We babble round the fountain
For what we know we make, I trow,
A molehill for a mountain

Infinity of space or time
An endless chain or circle—
To comprehend or e'en apprehend
Were more than man is able

And smaller matters will suffice
For men to puzzle over
Whilst every sect all sects reject
And truth is still a rover

Shell fossils on the hilltops tell
A tale of double meaning;
And truths are found on alien ground
As fossils well worth gleaning

Old forms are fading and we know
New forms show fickle faces
May charity humility
And patience be our graces

State of Affairs in Paris

A GENERAL VIEW OF THE FRENCH SITUATION

[Dispatch from New York Sept 27]

A well known business man of Chicago arrived in this city yesterday from Paris having left the French capital two weeks ago last Thursday He is a keen and intelligent observer, and gives many interesting facts and impressions touching the present situation He states that there is an

IMMENSE ARMY IN PARIS

Probably fully as many as the French journals claim but the material of the army is bad the men are generally the worst class of the population, drunken vicious impatient of discipline, ignorant impracticable dreamers, who would make good rioters and levelers but wholly unfit for the stern duties of soldiers. The men are poorly armed, nearly half of them having nothing but the ordinary musket. The French interpretation of equality has led them to treat their officers with little respect, and

STRICT DISCIPLINE IS IMPOSSIBLE

The better class of the Parisians are not in the army though they are giving largely to the national cause Though there are large numbers of Imperialists in Paris they are greatly outnumbered and overawed This class comprise the shopkeepers tradesmen and a large minority of the wealthier classes trade and commerce having flourished beyond all precedent under the reign of Napoleon This class is fully wedded to the Empire and would cheerfully welcome the return of the fallen Emperor

IN THE PROVINCES

The feeling is very strong in favor of Napoleon, though the ascendancy of the revolutionary spirit prevents its full expression The people do not believe in the inefficiency of Napoleon nor his Generals The army they say fought bravely and was well handled but was simply beaten by overpowering numbers No human power they admit, could make one man even a Frenchman, whip those Prussians The bad equipment of the army they admit but charge

THE WHOLE RESPONSIBILITY

Upon the opponents of the Empire Napoleon, they say, had recently sought to conciliate the Republican element by appointing well known representatives of that party to places of responsibility in the military establishment, these men were, many of them

TRAITORS FROM THE START,

And actually conspired to weaken the army The story that thousands of cartridges were found filled with sand and useless is affirmed The Republicans, they say, having no idea of a foreign war, and believing the army would be [illegible] eventually to put down the revolution, they intended to render it as nearly harmless as possible, So, in other departments the Emperor was grossly deceived It was this weakness, well known to the Republican leaders, they claim, that caused them to oppose the war so earnestly.

THE COMMANDER OF THE FLEET,

From which so much was expected, they also declare a traitor, and point to the fact that when the mob Government was formed he was appointed one of the members of the revolutionary Government without having any consultation, thus showing that the revolutionists were well informed of his position His treason, they allege, alone prevented active operations by the fleet They also point to the case of the late French Minister at Washington,

PARODOL,

Who, once a rabid Republican, soon became an Imperialist, but who, knowing those facts committed suicide when war was declared, to escape the odium he believed would follow the discovery of the Republican plots to ruin the army The belief of the Imperialists is that Paris will be captured, and the Provisional Government deposed.

THE OLD CORPS LEGISLATIF

Will then be called together and with them only will the Prussians treat Once in session, all revolutionary acts will be repealed and the Napoleon dynasty restored Such our informant says is the wish and hope of three-fourths of the French people outside of Paris

Homicide near Walla Walla

Some days ago we made mention of the fact that a man named George Royce had been shot and killed near Walla Walla The body of the murdered man was found by his wife. He had been shot with a pistol, the ball entering the back of his head and lodging in the brain A later account gives the following additional particulars We quote from the Herald.

A young man named Edward Jones who had a long standing grudge against the deceased, arising from a land difficulty was present at the inquest, and admitted that he killed Royce but claimed that in some conversation, that Royce had first fired at him

A warrant for his arrest was immediately issued, and F P Dugan and A J Cain prosecuting attorneys, went to Waitsburg to prosecute this case, and N T Caton was employed to defend it

The examination was had before two persons, neither of whom it turns out were legal justices of the peace assisted by Justice Saunders of Dry Creek precinct On the examination it was proven that Jones had made frequent threats against Royce that at the time of the killing but one report of a pistol was heard, that Royce's pistol had but five loads in it when he left home on Saturday morning, and had the same number in it when it was found after his death that Royce's horse was running towards his own house and in an opposite direction from where Jones says he stood when he shot Royce Notwithstanding all these circumstances and facts going to contradict the prisoner's confession that he killed Royce in self defense the two persons acting as Justices decided to believe his confession and discharged him Justice Saunders would not concur and upon being outvoted promptly issued his warrant for the re-arrest of Jones and he is now in Fort McAuliff awaiting another examination before O P Lacy

THE CAPITULATION OF ROME Following are the articles of the military convention of the 20th September for the capitulation of Rome as given by cable dispatches

It is stipulated between the Commanding General of the troops of his Majesty the King of Italy and the Commanding General of the Papal troops represented by the undersigned—

First—The City of Rome excepting that part which is limited in the southern part of the falls of Santa Spirito and comprehending Mount Vatican and the Castle St Angelo, forming the so-called Leonine City its complete armament, flags, arms, ammunition and stores, all the objects belonging to the government, shall be consigned to the troops of his Majesty the King of Italy

Second—All the garrison of the city shall depart receiving the honors of war with flags arms and baggage After the honors shall ha[illegible] [illegible] them [illegible] with [illegible] arms

The officers shall have a right to carry with them their swords and [illegible] belonging to them

The [illegible] troops shall have first the [illegible] will follow the order of battle with the left at the head

The garrison will have to march out at 7 A M

[illegible] The foreign troops shall be disbanded and immediately sent back to their respective countries They will [illegible] to-morrow by railroad

The government has the faculty of taking into [illegible] the rights of persons which they might [illegible] with the Papal government

The [illegible] will be formed into a depot with [illegible] The government will take into consideration their claims as to their future situation

WAR MISCELLANY

The condition made by King William preliminary to all peace discussions is the entry of Paris So says an officer of the Headquarters who left there after Favre's visit.

Gen Wimpffen is reported to have stated that he could have cut through the German army at Sedan that he had a plan therefor and would have executed it but was forced to capitulate by the conduct of the Emperor

General Wimpffen's statement in the Independence Belge is considered as giving the coup de grace to Napoleon and makes it clear that the Emperor did not court death at the head of his troops as asserted and that he sacrificed the last chances for the escape of the army to his personal safety

The Figaro publishes a very serious appeal, which may be thus epitomized We have neither artillery Generals nor soldiers it is necessary to acknowledge this and not to delude ourselves with dreams The [illegible] is past all Frenchmen are brave but a handful of Chasseurs is worth more than a whole regiment of men brave but not adroit Frenchmen, weigh this matter well meet consult resolve then send men to declare plainly whether you wish war or peace If you have more courage than military resources, do not be afraid to do your duty

It is impossible to overlook or undervalue the force of the argument, from a German standpoint that France, having made unprovoked war on Prussia and marched an army on her frontier for the express purpose of seizing and annexing the German Rhine provinces, should not now complain if Prussia pays her back in her own coin There is a great deal of human nature in such retaliation The force of this view of the question is felt by all the neutral powers and is admitted by the present Republican Government of France to be a strong point against them

In the conference between Bismarck and Favre the former strenuously maintained that France had for years the intention of attacking Germany and this feeling had not entirely departed that to insure her own security for the future Germany was compelled to demand territorial guarantees from France for her peaceful intentions toward Germany for all time that Germany had a right to ask the cession of the Departments of the upper and lower Rhine together with the forts of Metz and Chateau de Salins and Soissons This position the Count stated Germany could not relinquish M Favre indignantly responded to these humiliating conditions We will never accept these terms

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid countenances and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days in posting upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emission is the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to a most unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by a patient formed medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and attiling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and unfailing mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he [illegible] of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtaining immediate relief

NOTICE.

HOLDERS OF TICKETS to the GIFT CONCERT in aid of the Mercantile Library Association are hereby notified that the Concert is postponed until

Monday, October 31st, 1870

Unexpected interferences have operated to make this delay necessary to accomplish the result of freeing the Library from debt, without recourse to other privileges granted by act of the Legislature passed February 19 1870

This is positively the only postponement which will be made The Concert will take place on the day above named commencing at nine o clock A M and to continue until all the gifts have been awarded

The funds already in bank are considerably more than sufficient to insure the successful completion of the contract with the public

The sale of tickets will positively close on Friday the 28th day of October 1870

All tickets remaining unsold at that time will be withdrawn from sale and cancelled They will be advertised by their numbers on the 29th day of October 1870 in one or more of the daily papers of this city Any diminution thus made in the number of tickets to be drawn will not affect the number or amount of gifts They will be as heretofore advertised to wit 628 gifts amounting in all to $500 000 gold

Ticket holders residing out of San Francisco will receive duly accredited lists of the awards. Full lists will also be published in the leading San Francisco daily papers on the 1st November, 1870

Delivery of gifts will commence November 2d 1870 at the Office No 318 California Street to all parties presenting tickets to which gifts have been awarded All gifts awarded to non residents will be held to their order and for their account

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

This association of whose [illegible] an account a few days since, [illegible] purpose of shares As it is with [illegible] Portland Homestead Association [illegible] organization of that kind in this city [illegible] well enough to state what are its [illegible] the manner in which it is proposed [illegible] operations The purposes of [illegible] Associations are not at all [illegible] ordinary sense of the word. [illegible] for the profits of their investment [illegible] ral advance in the value of their [illegible] quent upon the co-operation of [illegible] —shareholders—and the [illegible] surrounding lands by [illegible] population and demand [illegible] still near the city The Riverside Association has a fraction [illegible] twenty acres of land situated [illegible] Brooklyn on the east side of the [illegible] east boundary line being about [illegible] ferry landing at East Portland [illegible] in one strip along the Willamette river [illegible] in length, and another strip along the [illegible] California railroad, half a mile in length [illegible] strips being connected [illegible] rows of blocks (with a street [illegible] whole forming a figure [illegible] It is divided into 74 blocks, [illegible] streets running at right angles [illegible] al lots along the river front [illegible] ber 600, worth $60 per share. [illegible] a share thus represents nearly [illegible] vided interest in the 80 fractional [illegible] tional shares are to be sold [illegible] for the benefit of the Association [illegible] coming in for the proceeds [illegible] number of shares held. When [illegible] taken and the [illegible] mine to do it, the choice of [illegible] will be put up at auction [illegible] bidder the proceeds of such sale [illegible] the original price of shares [illegible] equally among the whole [illegible] Thus, if a person wants a [illegible] and is willing to pay $100 or [illegible] or less as the case may be [illegible] the lot or block as his individual [illegible] premium being divided among [illegible] of shareholders It will be [illegible] everything is co-operative, [illegible] tual No man can make a [illegible] out also making a dollar for [illegible] shareholder There is no [illegible] the property, by some [illegible] far below the first appraisal [illegible] liable to happen in the case [illegible] tract of land must be [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] vance on real estate in this [illegible] hood, and at East Portland [illegible] last year or two, it [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside Association [illegible] tions seem to have been taken [illegible] monopolies of shares No person [illegible] buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four [illegible] termining the operations of the [illegible] restricted in the same [illegible] shares may pay down $50 per share [illegible] exempt them from all [illegible] pay $15 quarterly with [illegible] share payable with the first [illegible] liable in this latter case to [illegible] other) assessment of $2 per [illegible] payment of the shares in full [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled [illegible] and his proportion of all the [illegible] all sources No officer of the [illegible] any pay for services [illegible] gets $25 per month, so it will be [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying [illegible] a high plateau, nearly level, [illegible] above the water. There is [illegible] row of blocks between [illegible] Portland and the river for [illegible] stream That part of the tract [illegible] railroad is [illegible] feet [illegible] soil and adapted to [illegible] tiful little stream of pure [illegible] almost the entire length of [illegible] affording the means of [illegible] ficient to supply pure [illegible] whole tract There is not a [illegible] lot in the entire tract. Under all these advan tages it would seem impossible that there [illegible] be any chance of loss to the [illegible] year each shareholder, [illegible] perfect title to as many lots as [illegible] represent or he may [illegible] vided, with the Association [illegible] tion may exist.—Oregonian

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD [illegible]

We have been led to [illegible] fact that the subject of [illegible] skirts of this city and East Portland [illegible] discussed here among all [illegible]

Riverside just south of [illegible] been established The site [illegible] ing a little over a mile south of the ferry landing [illegible] shaped like the letter H, [illegible] in length borders on the river.

From this portion of the [illegible] but a trifle above the other prong of the H, [illegible] forty or fifty feet above the river, [illegible] sive view of Portland, East Portland, [illegible] the Willamette river for several [illegible] fertile and is partly covered with [illegible] tract of land just wide enough [illegible] with an avenue between them, [illegible] of the H which has already been [illegible] the east This last tract of land is [illegible] valley which is now under a high state of [illegible] Through its whole length runs a trout brook [illegible] of which [illegible] crystal [illegible] Association proposes to have water [illegible] pipes to every portion of the [illegible]
